Consulting interviews are highly selective

Consulting application funnel

- The consulting application process is highly selective – even after passing screening and hiring tests, only ≈10% of candidates receive an offer due to the complexity of case and fit assessments.
- Candidates fail interviews, mainly due to:
  - Reliance on outdated books and preparation advice
  - Input from coaches who lack a track record of actual success stories
  - Practicing with low-quality cases and inexperienced case partners
- Opportunity: With the right coaching and structured preparation, success rates increase dramatically – from 10% up to 95%, depending on the firm and time invest

Many highly qualified candidates fail not because they lack talent, but because they lack structured preparation

A combination of 1:1 coaching, digital resources, and personalized guidance increases offer rates dramatically

...across the entire process...

Networking & application

Pass the filters

1. Build a set of experiences to support your candidacy
2. Create a credible story about fit and motivation
3. Network and score referrals
4. Prepare flawless application documents

Years to build resume, 1-6 months to network and to apply

HR, active junior consultants

Aptitude tests & screening calls

Get to the interviews

1. Ace potential aptitude and screening tests
2. Pass a potential fit phone screening interview
3. Pass a potential case phone screening interview
4. Go through potential non-evaluative case training sessions

1-2 weeks after application, sometimes up to 2 months

HR, active and former junior to mid-level consultants

Round I 2-3 interviews

Pass your first-round interviews

1. Personal fit interviews: This part of the interview revolves around your background, motivation, personality, achievements, and skills
2. Case interviews: A case interview revolves around a real-world (business) problem that you need to solve. The key is to structure your approach, ask the right questions, perform qualitative and quantitative analyses to deliver a solid recommendation
3. Ace special assessments. Some firms employ group discussions, written case interviews, or in-office aptitude tests

1-3 weeks after positive screening, sometimes longer

Junior and mid-level consultants (e.g., associates, project managers)

Round II 2-3 interviews

Confirm previous performance

Interviewers try to confirm findings from the first round(s) or specifically test you in areas where you appeared weakest. Most interviews contain the same two as before

If your performance was very strong across multiple rounds but some doubts remain in one specific area, in rare cases, you might be invited for another deciding final round interview

1-2 weeks after first round, sometimes combined with round one in one day

Senior consultants (e.g., junior partners, partners, senior partners)

4 reasons you're in good hands with me

Testimonials at the end of the document

1 Your Success	Proven highest success and offer rate across platforms since I began coaching and mentoring aspiring consultants.
2 Your Trust	The most 5-star ratings and coaching sessions of any case coach in the past 4 years, consistently delivering results across multiple platforms.
3 Your Mentoring	The most comprehensive, end-to-end consulting prep, covering everything from resume reviews and networking strategies to case prep theory, practice drills, and expert coaching – so you're fully prepared, not just for the interviews, but for the job.
4 Industry Trust	Even other coaches trust my expertise! Many have purchased my full product range and apply my bestselling book's methods to guide their own clients.

My clients meet interviewers at eye level…

A clear mission

"Help me to help you to make you successful."

These were the words of a McKinsey partner on my first engagement when we grabbed a coffee together. It struck me as an elegant approach to business and life in general, highlighting how mutual collaboration and support can achieve the highest outcomes for everyone involved. This attitude has stuck with me.

It was my north star for creating StrategyCase.com, providing comprehensive preparation and guidance for prospective consultants and new hires.

Consulting mindset first: I coach my clients to think, structure, and communicate at a top-consultant level.

Significant impact

- 2,000+ case and fit interview coaching sessions delivered (primarily through structured coaching packages*)
- 1,400+ verified 5-star reviews across multiple platforms
- 700+ consulting offers generated for McKinsey, Bain, BCG, Tier-2 firms, Big 4, boutique consultancies, and in-house strategy teams
- Author of the highest-rated case interview book on Amazon
- 1.5 million consulting applicants reached through StrategyCase.com
- Teaching consulting and problem-solving topics at universities across Europe, Asia, and North America

4 sessions per client on average*

…to turn the odds in their favor

- Get a top consulting job from a non-target school?
- Get into McKinsey, BCG, and Bain with no business background in the most competitive office?
- Beating the odds during an economic downturn?
- Make interviewers wonder how quickly you were able to solve a case?
- Skip interview rounds and move directly to the offer?
- Dominate a whole interview round?

These are not outlier cases; with my clients, this is the standard.

I'm going to headline this review by saying I got the McKinsey offer. All I used for this was 'The 1% Case Method' and all that that gets you – one to one sessions with Florian, access to his StrategyCase resources, and practising with his other top quality candidates that he is coaching. I do not have a business background at all but Florian took me from zero to offer in just five sessions.

Not only did I get the offer but I was told I was the "most definite offer" of this recruitment cycle and that the partners immediately gave me a "yes" before even discussing my performance. This is 100% down to Florian's ability as a coach to get you to be offer-ready and there is absolutely no way I could have done it without him. (I've also left an individual lesson review with the above in it – that's me!)

Together, we can create a 3x-win scenario

Value creation

1	You	Receive your desired offers from target firms on top of skill-building and job preparation
2	Me	Get to work with motivated individuals, expand my global reach and track record of success
3	Consulting firms	Receive top-tier talent, well-trained for the job, not just for the interviews

Value pillars

Networking and referrals

- I help you with targeted reach outs and scoring referrals

Resume and cover letter

- I edit your application documents to perfection

Recruitment tests

- I prepare you for recruitment tests and games

Case and fit interview coaching

- I coach you to ace all interviews with confidence

Offer negotiation and career advice

- I'll make sure you have a great start into your career

The 1%: Conquer Your Consulting Case Interview: Unlock the secrets behind modern case and fit interviews and join the one percent that breaks into McKinsey, BCG, Bain, and other top firms is a great book. The book is an exceptional consulting preparation guide that surpasses other books on the topic. Despite being well-prepared for consulting interviews, the book will exceed your expectations. It offers a comprehensive and in-depth guide to the entire interview process, including often overlooked areas such as fit and interview attire. The author, Florian, recognizes the gaps in current guides that are out there and provides valuable insights, making it stand out from more general resources. The book's extent of topics is complemented by nuanced advice that challenges outdated approaches taught in common case books. The writing is clear, easy-to-read, and easy to understand, and chapters can be read in any order, catering to both beginners and experienced interviewees. Highly recommend.

★★★★★ The only book you have to read

"The 1%" is an excellent resource for anyone preparing for a consulting interview. The book is well-organized and easy to follow, making it a great guide for both beginners and experienced candidates.

First, it provides an overview of the consulting industry and the different firms. They it delves into the specifics of the interview process, including the different types of questions that are commonly asked and how to prepare for them. It contains lots of information on the PEI but also contains details on the process of other consultancies. The book also includes tips and tricks for making a good impression during the interview, as well as advice on how to follow up after the interview is over.

One of the things I appreciated most about this book is the level of detail provided. The author includes examples of common interview questions, as well as sample answers that demonstrate how to approach them. This is incredibly helpful for anyone who is feeling nervous about the interview process and wants to be as prepared as possible.

In addition to providing practical advice, the author also includes a number of case studies and real-world examples that help to bring the material to life. These examples are engaging and help to illustrate the key concepts in a relatable way.

Overall, "The 1%" is a must-read for anyone looking to break into the consulting industry. It is well-written, informative, and packed with valuable advice and insights. I highly recommend it to anyone who is preparing for a consulting interview.

★★★★★ One of the most comprehensive consulting case interview guides out there today

Reviewed in the United Kingdom GB on March 5, 2023

The 1% is simply amazing and is the best consulting preparation guide that I have found. Having been preparing for my consulting interviews for a while, I wasn't expecting this book to teach me much, but was I wrong!

1. The book is probably the most comprehensive guide on the topic of consulting interviews out there. Having read Case in Point and Case Interview Secrets, I was pleasantly surprised by how the book covers the process end-to-end, including fit, mindset, how candidates are evaluated, and even interview wardrobe. These are areas which are mostly neglected by the current literature on consulting interviews. Florian acknowledges these gaps in the currently available literature on the topic, demonstrating how the book isn't just another generic cash grab with little insight that you can find for free on the Internet.

2. The 1% also offers incredible depth. Given the breadth of topics covered, one would expect the advice to be quite superficial, but it was the complete opposite! Florian's vast experience in case interview coaching really shines through here as the content was both very nuanced and different from the outdated approaches taught by the common case books.

3. Despite the sheer amount of content contained within the book, I never once found it a slog to get through. Everything was presented in a clear, easy-to-read, and (most importantly) digestible way. Another aspect that is fantastic about the book is how each chapter can be read in any order- this is particularly useful as it caters to complete beginners with little case interview experience who would want to read from start to finish, as well as intermediate to advanced interviewees who may only want to pick certain chapters to bolster their knowledge.

If you are preparing for consulting interviews, this should be your go-to book. I can honestly say that nothing out there even comes close to this. I have already recommended to this several friends, and am glad I am interviewing soon, because this book is going to raise the level of competition!

Practice with modern and realistic cases

- Refreshed theory & tools: Core principles from the bestseller to strengthen fundamentals
- 25 realistic cases (+3 online): Modern, complex, and industry-relevant

Florian transformed my casing. By referencing anecdotes from past interviews and consulting projects, he turned dry casing into something memorable and helped me understand the 3 W's for every move in a case: what to do now, why, and how. This helped me turn abstract concepts into habits to follow.

The program and sessions are broken down into clear steps, building from one case to the next, with each case offering a unique twist and learning objective. It felt complete and well thought through. Besides, I found the level of individual care remarkable.

Florian is an outstanding case coach. I did just 3 sessions with him on a very short timeline, and those sessions were pure rapid-fire case drills specifically selected for the interviewers I was about to face. Even though I had done some cases before, his preparation was extremely targeted and efficient. I'm happy to say the results speak for themselves and I walked away with 3 offers in 2 weeks. Highly recommend Florian if you want focused, high-intensity practice that actually moves the needle.

Florian was an incredible coach throughout my McKinsey prep, and I'm thrilled to share that I got the offer! We worked within a tight timeline, but Florian made every session count. His feedback was always objective, detailed, and specific, never generic, which made it easy to identify exactly what to improve. He was also incredibly prompt with responses whenever I reached out with questions, which made a real difference given how compressed my prep window was. Beyond the case and PEI prep itself, Florian's experience at McKinsey gave him a genuine understanding of what interviewers are actually looking for, and that insight showed up in every session. I felt fully prepared walking into my final round because of the work we put in together. If you're looking for a coach who is thorough, honest, and genuinely invested in your success, I'd highly recommend Florian!

Bain

5.0 Excellent coach

Florian is one of the most knowledgeable and practical coaches I have worked with. His advice is highly relevant, actionable, and focused on helping candidates perform at their best.

During and after our sessions, he provided detailed feedback and concrete suggestions that helped me identify areas for improvement and elevate my performance from a good candidate to a stronger, more polished one. He also shared valuable resources and clear next steps for continued preparation before my interview.

I highly recommend Florian to anyone looking for expert guidance, practical insights, and a structured approach to interview preparation.

I enjoyed prepping for McKinsey with Florian. He really knows his craft, is detail-oriented and gives very specific, actionable feedback. He mapped exactly where I stood after the first case across several metrics, tracked my progress across every session, and always provided clear tips and practice instructions on how to reach the next level. The combination of his knowledge and personalized coaching made it a very good investment. I saw steady improvement and went into the case interview feeling well prepared. On the PEI side, we tweaked the stories once and the interviewers loved them.

Interview Coaching

The coaching sessions with Florian were critical building blocks on my path to securing an MBB offer! I highly recommend working with him to anyone. The sessions and his feedback were incredibly helpful. What stood out was that Florian was always available for follow-up questions between sessions, provided me with a concrete preparation plan including materials, and ultimately lifted my performance and confidence to a whole new level. Finally, as a professional, full-time coach, Florian brings an outstanding level of insight into the process, backed by exceptional examples and targeted drill materials. Here is a glimpse into my sessions with Florian: The mock cases were challenging and tailored exactly to my target level and development goals. The feedback was extremely detailed, actionable, and highly structured. In addition to verbal feedback, Florian provided a very granular scorecard that highlighted concrete levers for improvement across each category. Finally, Florian took a tremendous amount of time to clear up all open questions, connected me with other great candidates for mock cases, and gave me specific exercises to work on between sessions. A perfect, all-around preparation!

I had the pleasure of working with Florian, and I cannot recommend him highly enough.
From the very beginning, his holistic coaching style stood out. Instead of taking a rigid, one-size-fits-all approach, he looked at the whole picture — my goals, challenges, background, and personal circumstances. He was incredibly attentive to my needs and adjusted his support to what actually worked for me.
As someone who is neurodivergent, I especially appreciated his patience and understanding. He took the extra time to guide me through the framework and math process at a pace that felt right, never rushing or making me feel overwhelmed. His calm, supportive presence made a huge difference. He broke things down clearly, offered gentle reminders, and celebrated every small win.
What I valued most was how consistently encouraging he was. I feel much more prepared and empowered. If you're looking for a coach who is compassionate, patient, and cares about your outcomes, I highly recommend working with Florian. He is a true gem!

5.0 The Best Case Coach I Ever Worked With

Florian is quite simply the best case coach I have ever worked with. He brings a rare combination of extensive consulting experience and deep strategic insight. What sets him apart is his ability to break down complex case structures and navigate the specific nuances of different firm styles.

Beyond the mock sessions, Florian provided a rigorous framework for improvement, offering detailed feedback across logic, content, and personal delivery. Most importantly, he didn't just coach during our time together; he provided a roadmap and resources for self-improvement between sessions. 5/5

I had a great experience working with Florian through the 5-session coaching package. The sessions were extremely professional and well structured, and he always created an environment where I felt comfortable asking questions and discussing any doubts.
What I appreciated most was how flexible he was with scheduling and how supportive he remained throughout the process. Florian is very attentive during the sessions and provides clear, practical feedback that helps you improve quickly.
His coaching approach is very practical and focused on the skills that really matter in consulting interviews. Thanks to the preparation and methods we worked on together, I was able to significantly improve my performance and ultimately received two offers from strategy consulting firms.
I would definitely recommend Florian to anyone preparing for consulting interviews.

Coaching from The 1% Case Method

Working with Florian has been one of the most valuable investments in my consulting and interview journey. His material is not only high quality, but constantly evolving to reflect what's actually happening in the market today. The peer sessions are particularly useful in bringing together driven, like-minded individuals and creating a space to practice, exchange feedback, and improve quickly. The real impact, however, comes from the 1:1 sessions with him. They are incredibly targeted and insightful, they pinpoint exactly what needs to be worked on, why it matters, and how to approach it in a practical way. In my case, he helped me significantly sharpen my communication during case interviews, which ultimately got me over the line to secure an offer.

Casing with Florian ultimately landed me McKinsey and BCG offers in my target offices.
He dove straight into pinpointing my exact gaps, whether it was structuring the case or "leading" the conversation, and built a tailoreed plan to address them. Florian provided actionable tactics, firm-specific insights into how cases are evaluated, and practical tips on what to watch for during the interview to stay aligned with the interviewer's expectations.
His feedback was always direct and spot-on, pushing me out of my comfort zone while also knowing exactly when to offer encouragement, especially when I was being overly harsh on myself about my performance. That balance of tough honest input and genuine support made a huge difference in building both my skills and my confidence.
He shared valuable resources and advice between our meetings to keep my progress steady and make sure I cover all bases like the behaviorals, networking and follow-up strategies (also when NOT to overdo it), to negotiation tips once offers came in.
Most coaches I worked with treated it as purely transactional but Florian stayed interested throughout, checking in during my prep to see how I was holding up.
His competency, expertise, and real dedication absolutely justified the investment.

What can I say? I worked with Florian for my McKinsey interview prep and I got the offer. My dream offer. I already told him in person, but it's worth writing here: he's the best coach I've ever had. I tried so many resources before, but nothing came close. His coaching is super practical, very tailored, and exactly focused on what actually matters in the McKinsey process. Every session felt efficient and personalized to my strengths, weaknesses, and learning style.

Florian wasn't just a coach. He felt like a top-tier sports trainer on the sidelines: cheering, pushing, analyzing, and helping me make adjustments I simply would not have spotted on my own.

Both the PEI coaching and the case coaching were spot-on. During the final interviews, the feedback I got said everything:

"Your performance was way above average. Your creativity and business sense really stood out."

"You absolutely nailed the PEI — we're looking exactly for someone like you."

They even told me to let them know when my onboarding is so they can try to get me on a project!

That's how strong the feedback was!!!

To be clear: Florian can't do the work for you. You still have to put in the hours. But if you're willing to do that, he'll help you get there.

I can fully recommend him. I've used a lot of prep material and he's truly next level. It worked.

Working with Florian through The 1% Case Method has been one of the most valuable experiences in my consulting preparation journey. His approach is structured, personalized, and incredibly insightful. He does not just teach frameworks but helps you understand how to think like a consultant, how to break problems down, synthesize insights, and communicate clearly under pressure. Florian played a key role in helping me secure an offer in consulting, and I can confidently say that I would not have made it without his guidance. Each session built on the previous one, sharpening both my analytical and interpersonal skills. I truly appreciated his patience, depth of feedback, and ability to simulate real case interviews that mirrored top-tier consulting standards. I had the chance to work with Florian specifically opting in for the 1% Case Method, and I can confidently say it made quite a difference in my interview journey. The program is extremely structured and practical and more importantly tailored. For me specifically, I had already a good amount of case study knowledge and pretty high floor in my performance hence I was doubtful at first as to what else can these coaching sessions help me with if I am already good, I had a brief chat with Florian and was convinced he can take me from a fairly good candidate to an excellent one, and that's exactly what happened. Because of that I thankfully was able to get the offer at Mckinsey and would highly recommend this program.

Just received an offer to a McKinsey US office! Here was my prep journey: received a message with an interview invite; I had not received one any other time I applied, so I did not case prep. I realized I needed to prepare, fast. With Florian, I did 5 sessions, and in between, I worked on his proprietary stack of drills. Thoughts: Florian is an excellent coach for two reasons: a) after all of the candidates he has coached, he truly understands what a perfect performance looks like, even down to the way that you embody an executive presence on the call, and b) his sessions are structured to maximally ensure you cover all of these nuances. He provides you with a spreadsheet of bespoke feedback after each session that is based on a series of dozens of positive indicators across each component of the case interview he has identified. Then, he has drills for you to work through to ensure all of the communication and structuring nuances are being followed. In this way, he is extremely precise in his demands of you, ensures your cases and PEIs flow with perfection, and ensures that you engage in all of the oddities of a perfect interview by second-nature prior to your interview. Concerns you may have. Is it too expensive? To be real, if an MBB offered you a job, but with a 20% wage discount, wouldn't you still take it? For the US base BA salary (for example), the coaching is just around 1.5% of first year salary, and compared to other coaches, it is not very risky at all since conditioned on having an interview, and doing everything he tells you to via prep, I'd feel strongly that you will make it. Does his method translate to the US? He has a lot of success with US candidates, and the case interviews are identical almost everywhere! No reason not to go for this coaching if you can afford it. The best investment you can make is in yourself!

I was fortunate to receive offers from McK and BCG, and while the entire experience has felt surreal, one thing I know for sure is that working with Florian and using his 1% methods was one of the best decisions I made. His PEI coaching is genuinely flawless. The guides he provides are PEI bibles. Even when interview prompts shifted slightly, I stuck to Florian's structure and my stories landed cleanly every single time. Across all my interviews, one of the most consistent pieces of feedback I got was how strong my personal stories were, and that's 100% thanks to how thoroughly Florian helped me prepare. For case interviews, Florian didn't just teach me how to solve cases, he helped me build a mindset. His approach sharpened how I think and gave me a structure I could apply to almost any problem. His practice cases were spot-on, and the drills we did were eerily similar to the ones I got in my actual interviews. Honestly, if you work through all the drills in the 1% modules, chances are you'll end up practicing at least one real case you'll get asked. That's how accurate and useful the content was. Thanks to Florian, I walked out of interview already feeling like I'd been there before. After both rounds, I asked for formal feedback and the response was basically: "Keep doing what you're doing." That's because Florian made sure I was airtight on every front. But what really sets Florian apart is how he shows up as a coach. I had dabbled other coaches before I found him, and after just one session with Florian, it was clear he was on another level. His process around cracking this is incredibly structured and optimized for success. He gave me his full attention in every session, focused precisely on what I needed to improve, and never made me feel rushed or like I was just another appointment on his calendar. He always made time for follow-ups, and struck the perfect balance between honest feedback and encouragement. Florian is world-class. If you're serious about landing an offer, work with him. It truly changed everything for me.

Working with Florian was absolutely pivotal – I wouldn't have received my McKinsey offer without his coaching. What truly sets Florian apart is his ability to tailor the preparation process to the individual. He quickly identified both my strengths and the key areas I needed to improve to perform at an MBB level. It wasn't just about case prep – we refined my PEI stories in depth, and I'm convinced that this personal clarity and precision made the difference in the interviews. Florian brings a rare mix of structure, honest feedback, strategic thinking, and just the right level of challenge. I highly recommend his coaching to anyone who wants to go into interviews not just "prepared," but ready to stand out at the very top level.

I recently received an offer from McKinsey, and Florian's coaching was absolutely key to my success. I only had three weeks until my first interview, and his structured approach helped me become fully prepared in such a short time.

Before working with Florian, I tried three different coaches to practice cases, but nothing compared to his method. His cases are exactly like McKinsey's, from the case structure to the math questions and the type of business problems they use. He didn't just teach me how to solve cases—he taught me the right approach in a way that made tackling McKinsey cases feel natural and intuitive.

I took Florian's 5-session package, which also included access to his website, filled with drills and structured practice materials. Another standout aspect of his coaching is the Excel feedback sheet he provides after every session, breaking down strengths, weaknesses, and areas for improvement. This made it easy to track my progress and refine my approach.

If you're serious about McKinsey prep and want the closest thing to the real interview, Florian is the best coach out there. I can't recommend him enough!

Florian is the absolute MVP. He was a fundamental lever in my path towards achieving multiple NYC MBB offers to join full time.
Specifically, I would highlight 3 points: i) proximity to the market, ii) quality and depth of contents and iii) becoming a true friend.
First, Florian is extremely updated on the current consulting market trends, which always made me very confident in the fact that I was preparing with the most up to date materials and that I knew I could just focus on improving my capabilities. Secondly, the quality and depth of Florian's contents is unmatched. Amazing feedback every time we spoke and very well articulated. It became "fun" to learn with Florian and I was always looking forward to the next session!
Finally and, most importantly, Florian became a friend in the preparation and always opened exceptions when those would bring added value to my preparation (including doing me a mock interview in the same day before one my last interviews which was essential to get me in the right mindset).
Thanks Florian – I am very thankful to you my friend!

Florian – The Best Coach on PrepLounge

I had the privilege of working with Florian during my prep journey, and his guidance was truly instrumental in securing my 2025 McKinsey Summer Business Analyst offer at the Japan office.

After finishing my first year at a UK university, I set my sights on consulting, specifically on landing an internship at McKinsey. Initially, I used CaseCoach to get a handle on case interviews, but without a feedback loop, my progress felt limited. With case interviews, there's rarely a single "right" answer, and the broad range of approaches made it difficult to gauge my improvement and build confidence.

That's when I found Florian. I was looking for someone who could provide targeted, actionable feedback and a seasoned coach like Florian seemed far more valuable than simply practising with friends or colleagues at MBB firms. Florian's experience as a consultant at McK and proven results of +170 Mck offers made him the perfect choice to guide me toward my goal.
Three Reasons Why Florian is the Best Coach on PrepLounge:

1. Outstanding Personality and Approachability

I remember feeling incredibly nervous before our first intro call—Florian's experience as a former McKinsey consultant was a bit intimidating, and I wondered if I even deserved to be on the same call with him! But from the first moment, Florian made me feel at ease. He took the time to listen and understand my situation, offering insightful guidance that was always supportive and never intimidating. Throughout the highs and lows of the job hunt, Florian's friendly and empathetic approach kept me calm and focused, which made all the difference.

2. Top-Tier, In-Depth Feedback

The "1% Case Method" program includes five interview sessions with Florian, and each session was a game-changer. After just one session, I already felt more prepared for McKinsey's interview process! Florian's feedback goes beyond surface-level advice. He provides detailed, structured critiques across essential skills (communication, content, structure) and key areas (structuring, quantitative analysis, chart analysis, brainstorming). His Excel feedback sheet, with specific pointers and scoring, gave me clear, measurable goals to improve. With his experience generating over 170 McKinsey offers, Florian offers unique insights that dramatically elevated my case technique, business acumen, and confidence.

3. Extensive Resources Worth $1,758 from CaseStrategy

What makes Florian's "1% Case Method" stand out is the comprehensive access to resources. Beyond our interview sessions, I frequently tapped into his CaseStrategy materials, including the McKinsey Solve Game Guide, Case Interview Math Mastery Video Course, Structuring and Framework Course, and more. Whenever I needed to strengthen a particular skill—like structuring—I'd use Florian's drills to refine my approach. This targeted practice paid off; when I received my offer, the interviewers specifically praised my structuring skills, a testament to Florian's effective resources.

Final Thoughts:

I'd like to extend my deepest gratitude to Florian for his support throughout my journey. I wish him all the best in helping future candidates reach their goals. If you're serious about consulting and want to work with a coach who knows exactly what it takes to succeed, Florian is undoubtedly the best on PrepLounge.

Interview Coaching

Update: I am now more than delighted to share that with Florian's help I have been able to land a full time position with BCG in the DACH region. I am beyond thankful for all of the tips he has provided and can truly recommend his coaching to anyone looking to break into BCG. Initial review of the third session: Very useful insights, even after doing a third session he still found new recommendations for me. I can also recommend him for preparing for the BCG "real life cases"

I got an offer from one of the MBB!!! And I wouldn't have made it without Florian's help!
Case interview is intimidating at first, but I gained confidence step-by-step through Florian's coaching! His approach focuses on behavior-based techniques that clarify what to do in each step of the interview process, and he provides detailed, actionable feedback after each mock interview session, helping me understand my strengths and areas for improvement. Between session, I could use tons of targeted, self-paced learning resources on the platform to address weaknesses and come back stronger for the next practice.
What I love most about this experience is Florian's warm personality, which alleviates much of the pressure when working with a professional coach and when the real interviews are coming. At the end of the day, I don't just get a coach ; I actually gain a supportive, experienced friend to accompany me on this challenging yet rewarding journey!

Hi Florian,

How was your trip in Asia? Hope you enjoyed it a lot!

I just got a call from BCG this morning - they decided to give me the offer for summer internship!!! I'm one of the only three who got the offer at for region.

Thank you so much for the help along the way! Definitely cannot do this on my own. :)

I had the pleasure of engaging Florian earlier this year.
My situation: I am an experienced hire with 8 years of experience. I had no experience with case interviews when I was contacted last minute to prepare for EM-level interviews.
The process: Florian was instrumental in bridging this gap for me quickly. He interviewed and guided me through multiple cases and all PEI situations, and created preparation plan with homework assignments and closely monitored my development.
The outcome: His advice and structured approach not only made me offer-ready but also prepared me for the job. He helped me get the job and transition into the new role.
I am forever grateful for this support!

Florian analyses your case skills in-depth in the first session and shows you how to improve in the different dimensions to meet the standards set out by the top consulting firms. The feedback is very organised into different skill dimensions and case elements and extremely detailed. I really liked his hands-on approach and down to earth coaching style. I constantly had the feeling he was working with me throughout the whole process even outside of sessions when he answered all my questions. He gave me practical guidance on negotiating my entry.

Florian's 1% coaching package stands out due to his dedication and personalised attention. The time and commitment in each session surpassed my expectations with all meetings going way past the scheduled time. His support extends beyond sessions and I found myself bombarding him with questions to which he responded quickly and with patience.

He is a pragmatic coach and concentrates on strategies and critical thinking rather than memorization of frameworks. This approach and his mindset tricks have given me a sense of security and versatility for a diverse range of cases. Moreover, Florian's provides a preparation plan, complemented by targeted practice exercises and the opportunity to connect with like-minded coachees in his network.

Having worked with other coaches in the past for internship interviews, I can assert that Florian's approach and feedback, coupled with his vast experience across different firms, and his engagement is rare. I have not experienced this before.

I got everything out of the programme I wanted.

Hi Florian,

Cheers to the New Year!

Thank you for the follow up email - I am so sorry I went MIA for the past 2 weeks. I did not want to tell you until things are 100% certain and I sign the offer as I did not want to jinx it. But the interview with went very well, The fit interview also went way better than I expected.

At the end of the interview, he told me that "you are doing very well during this interview" and "you should be able to hear back from us within 2 days - it will be quick". He def got my hopes up. Only 30 min after the interview, HR reached out to me and offered me the position (I attached the email below!). I was ecstatic as I did not think it would happen that fast but HR told me that told her to proceed with me ASAP.

Thank you again for being with me throughout this journey, Florian! I am sure I cannot make it this far without you and your guidance. Never in my wildest dream would I receive an offer only 30 min after the interview - as you can also notice how important this opportunity is to me. I will definitely keep you more in the loop the next few days to come.

Talk to you soon!

Best regards,

After struggling with my consulting interview, I reached out to Florian for help. Prior to connecting with him, I had practiced cases using resources like LOMS, Case Coach, and Custom Case Coach. My challenges included feeling overwhelmed with resources, not grasping the logic behind frameworks, difficulty communicating concisely, and struggling to think quickly on the spot.

Here's why I highly recommend Florian:

1. Pricing: Florian offers one of the best prices in the market. His bundle includes private sessions and a wealth of materials on his website, such as video courses, practice drills, and case books from reputable MBA programs. This comprehensive package saved me money compared to other platforms that charge solely for access to drills.

2. Coaching Style: Florian prioritizes the individual over rushing through sessions. His three key qualities—attentiveness, patience, and reliability—made him an invaluable coach. Detailed feedback, prompt email responses within 24 hours, and a focus on my needs demonstrated a genuine commitment to my progress.

3. Coaching Sessions: After each session, I received detailed feedback addressing what to improve, why improvement was necessary, and how to achieve it. Florian effectively enhanced my problem-solving skills, and I consistently noticed improvement after each session. Despite last-minute scheduling challenges from the firm I was interviewing with, Florian always came prepared and ensured my objectives were met.

4. Quality of Material: Having a PhD, consulting expertise, and having authored a book on case interviews should provide you with all the credentials you need to trust him. If not, I'm not sure what else would. All the materials on his website are carefully either selected from various sources (MBA case book) and or written by himself (practice drills) so you can have access to everything you need in the most time efficient manner.

In summary, Florian transformed my consulting interview experience. With his guidance, I overcame my initial struggles, capitalized on my strengths, and improved my weaknesses. If you're facing challenges similar to mine, I wholeheartedly recommend booking Florian to unravel each obstacle one by one.

Working with Florian for my offer was an absolute treat. He reassured me and showed a deep understanding of my situation and ambitions right away. His approach was highly personalized and he always came prepared with a case tailored to my specific development needs. Most importantly, his advice was spot on. He identifies weaknesses and areas for improvement quickly and does this with an insane level of detail orientation. He was not only pointing these out but also told me how to change and practice to internalize the newly learned skills with his drills. He also showed me how to build on my strengths which is something that I never considered before.

Throughout our sessions, Florian was super friendly and approachable. His ability to crack a few good jokes made the learning process more enjoyable and less stressful. His expertise and friendliness made the entire coaching experience effective and worthwhile.

One final aspect I greatly appreciated was the flexibility. He was very accommodating with scheduling and rescheduling, which helped me to balance my coaching sessions with my work commitments.

I bought the training with Florian because he had good reviews on all platforms I looked at and I can attest now that he prepared me very well for my interviews. On top of his expertise in case interviews and drilling you to the next level, he gave me even more courage and self-confidence. In every session he found new topics and questions to challenge me and always had very helpful tips, for instance, to polish your strengths and hide weaknesses. I felt very well prepared and was therefore able to go into several interviews a little more relaxed, which resulted in more than one offer which is more than what I expected. I can recommend his training to anyone who really wants to take their consulting interviews seriously. He also had great tips on how to prepare for the role after the offer.

I'm going to headline this review by saying I got the McKinsey offer. All I used for this was 'The 1% Case Method' and all that that gets you – one to one sessions with Florian, access to his StrategyCase resources, and practising with his other top quality candidates that he is coaching. I do not have a business background at all but Florian took me from zero to offer in just five sessions.

Not only did I get the offer but I was told I was the "most definite offer" of this recruitment cycle and that the partners immediately gave me a "yes" before even discussing my performance. This is 100% down to Florian's ability as a coach to get you to be offer-ready and there is absolutely no way I could have done it without him. (I've also left an individual lesson review with the above in it – that's me!)

I could go on all day about why this is the best package on PrepLounge, but I'll break it down into four areas: 1. It is 100% representative of the real interview; 2. Florian's drills and feedback are masterfully done to help you see huge improvements between cases; 3. Florian is truly a great, helpful and responsive guy; 4. Casing with his network was super helpful and fun.

1. Having recently been through my McKinsey interviews, I can say right from the get-go, Florian will run a 100% realistic scenario with you – the difficulty, pace, and style is entirely accurate to the real thing. This means you waste no time from the second that you start with Florian. This made me feel way more relaxed in the real thing because I'd cracked very similar cases in practice, so it just ended up feeling like another case with Florian – a great feeling when interviewing for your dream job!

2. Florian will give you a comprehensive spreadsheet of feedback broken down into really granular categories as well as very actionable ways to improve each area. I followed his feedback to the letter and got the offer. In between sessions, the resources you gain access to through this package - the drills, video academy and others – will make you so highly competent in each. My frameworks went from being very average to having my interviewers telling me that they were some of the most creative and structured that they could remember. This is again 100% down to Florian.

3. Florian is genuinely so easy to talk to. He dealt with my nerves, anxieties and fears throughout the whole process super well. Every time I had a wobble, he reassured me. Every time I had a question about anything interview related, he was super responsive, no matter how dumb my questions were haha. He is just a cool guy and I have really enjoyed every chat, call or case that I've had with him.

4. I feel really lucky to have had access to a network of super smart, funny and outgoing people to practice with. I have no doubt this has been a huge part of my success. I've genuinely made some really cool connections and friends from all over the place who were so comforting and reassuring in the build-up to my interviews (and offer!). I'm excited to celebrate their offers with them too :)

Overall, Florian has made my dreams come true and having this offer for McKinsey is genuinely going to open so many doors for me now, and I know I'm going to have access to so many amazing opportunities that a few days ago (pre-offer) were just a fantasy. As I said, the feedback was that I excelled in the interviews and I 100% attribute that to Florian and his coaching methods.

The 1% Case Method works! 🙂 After a longer journey I can finally say that my effort and investment paid off but I owe Florian a lot of graditude for his teaching and continuous support. I don't have the usual candidate profile and I could see that he was really interested in my progress and success from the first call on. We did many things besides going through case problems that helped me get a grip on business sense and judgement. After every session he always provided me with new tasks and homework practice to go through on my own but I was always able to discuss my struggles and questions with him. Thank you and I am looking forward to what is coming next.

Florian is a true mentor and not just a coach. I think enough has been written already but I wanted to wholeheartedly agree to what I have read before booking here and elsewhere. Florian helped me keep my spirits up and working with him was the main reason for getting my desired offer in this tough recruiting market.

– August 26, 2023 ★★★★★

I contacted Florian through a recommendation of my friend who received offers last year and we worked on a bunch of cases and PEI stories together. His interview style is very professional and he always has his poker face during the interview which I found to be exactly like in my McKinsey interviews, friendly but not revealing anything about my performance or if they liked my answers. When the interview was over he always switched back to feedback mode and was very amiable. The feedback that we discussed in each meeting was incredibly detailed and nuanced from general things to a lot of details that make you stand out in front of interviewers. For PEI, he told me exactly how to tell my stories and what to adjust to get the highest scores.

After every session he sent a scorecard and detailed evaluation for each element of the case with a homework plan. Every session we had took more than the allocated time and Florian was very patient with answering questions or extending just to discuss all details of the case and my performance. He was very responsive and approachable after each session helping me to clarify open questions or things I thought about later.

I already received offers with McKinsey and Bain and now canceled my BCG recruitment. I am very thankful for what I/we have achieved and I can only recommend working with him.

Whoever is reading this, I can totally recommend the program Florian has built. His advice is incredibly practical and actionable and he always tailors the sessions to your needs. I had a particular issue with the quant sections in each case and we focused on really quant heavy cases which together with his feedback and homework drills made me much more comfortable.

The sessions follow a clear progression and the feedback always left me with clear next steps and tasks.

Between sessions Florian was always available for impromptu advice on my homework or questions about my applications.

I cannot recommend a better coach for MBB!!

Maybe the most structured way to get several consulting offers.

– Florian has created a very structured process that begins already before the first session and guides you from session to session
– He has a method that works for each case and is more intuitive than what I read about before. No learning of frameworks but learning how to approach problems like a consultant. I think this will also help me on the job
– Each session was adjusted to my performance and tailored to current doubts I had. I was able to see my progress with him and in peer practice
– There was never any time limit. He was always very patient and made sure all questions were answered and I had a plan for the time between coaching sessions
– I did not have a lot of time for my preparation and he made sure to be available always on short notice
– I felt in great hands as Florian was always telling me something to be confident about

Many things were included in the coaching. Florian reviewed my resume and cover letter, I received access to other customers for peer practice, I used all preparation materials from the site and when I had a question, it was always answered within a few hours, etc, etc

I have not worked with other coaches but I am very happy with my experience and outcome (2 MBB offers, 1 Big 4).
Thank you for making that possible!

I recently completed a full coaching program with Florian and it was 100% worth it – especially since I walked away with my dream consulting offer. The things Florian has taught me have not only been invaluable for my interviews, but also in my personal and professional life, with many peers commenting on my structured thinking and concise communication.

Working with Florian is especially effective because he has synthesized interview success down to a list of habits, and sessions would be spent drilling these habits into you so that you can face any interview with confidence, no matter the case. This learning is enforced by the trove of amazing resources (drills, guides, etc.) that Florian has developed over the years as well as peer practice with his network of coachees (all of whom are strong at casing so you don't waste time practicing with peers who do not know what good looks like).

Furthermore, Florian is a person who really cares about your success. He is patient during sessions and always ready to spend extra time to make sure you get the most out of the session. He is also available outside sessions for any questions or doubts; in fact, I always found myself impressed by the timeliness and detail of his replies outside of sessions.

Overall, if you need to prepare for consulting interviews, Florian is your man! His sessions are simply the best and I can't recommend him enough. Drop him a message, you won't regret it :)

I applied for a McKinsey as a medic with very little knowledge about case interviews. I spent a bit of time preparing using the two well-known books on the market and other available resources but felt very chaotic in my approach.

With only 5 weeks until my interview and a lot of improvement to be made I booked in for Florian's 5 session package with the desire for a mentor to help provide some clarity/structure to my prep. I am so, so glad that I made the investment. Florian has a super structured approach to coaching, provides the most detailed feedback, with spreadsheets and even a timeline for you to follow for your own preparation. His practice cases are almost identical to real McKinsey interviews. He has an intimate knowledge about what the interviewers are looking for and perfects every aspect of your technique. We ended up doing an additional session before my final round to discuss final round/partner interview strategies. I felt well prepared and confident going into my interviews, a mindset that I think makes all the difference with MBB. With Florian's help I was able to maximise the little time I had left to prepare and secure an offer with McKinsey. Thank you Florian!

I come from a non-traditional background and tried to study all available materials on cases but the more I "learned" the more lost I became. I found Florian's book which I loved because it laid out a clear foundation and approach. I decided to go ahead with his coaching and I can honestly say it was the best decision. In these sessions I did not just learn to solve a case but solve problems like a consultant. I don't think I would have gotten that far on my own and also in such a short time.

Everything from the first session, the feedback, the detailed preparation plan and mentoring on the way (many emails and voice message) was top-notch. Florian was always available and I felt he was personally very invested in my situation and outcome. The practice materials were great and reflected exactly the types of cases and difficulty level I had in my interviews.

Florian's feedback in each session was tough but encouraging and actionable and I left every session with more confidence and a clear action plan.

If you want to go for MBB case coaching and be successful, I can highly recommend it. Thank you for everything!

Phenomenal experience from start to finish.

I knew after reading his book and the intro call that I wanted to work with Florian as he already provided so much insights and value during the call.

I have gone through 5 sessions now and worked through most of the materials he shared and I can say that the sessions and "homework" have been transformational for my case interview skills. Since the second sessions I never struggled again to open a case and move through it. The habits he teaches focus on what to do at each stage of the case and how to do it. It becomes very intuitive to just solve any problem. The preparation materials and his coaching network helped me cement and practice my skills.

I am very happy and thankful for what I learned and for the outcomes.

I wholeheartedly recommend Florian not only as a case interviewer and coach but also as a mentor who works very hard for your success:

1. He knows 100% what he is talking about when it comes to cases and fit interviews for all firms
2. His feedback is super detailed and highly structured in the session and the feedback and scoring sheets he sends out after
3. After the first session he sent out a detailed learning plan and gave me access to all materials I needed (drills, frameworks, math). I always knew what do to and how to improve
4. The sessions always went over the time limit and he wanted to make sure that all my q's are discussed
5. When I reached out between sessions he was always quick to catch up with
6. During the case he acts very professionally but during the feedback it shows that he is just a genuinely friendly and warm person. We always shared a couple of laughs during our sessions
7. I received all three offers I was striving for and he helped me decide where to go based on his own experience and advice

I hope he continues with case coaching for longer.

1. I had no idea what a case interview was and had to prepare in 2 months - Florian provided me with a tailored plan and confidence from day one
2. The cases he provides in terms of structure, math, exhibit are so similar to the ones I had in my interviews (in my final round I had a case very similar to the ones he gave me)
3. PEI... Florian is the go to person for it, in all interviews when I shared my story, I was barely asked drill downs.. instead was told my stories were so comprehensive
4. Florian would stay with me for extra time even when session has ended.. he would stay to address any question or concern

List can go on forever.. it was a great investment..

I received the offer from McKinsey!
Florian coached me both for PEI and the case.
For PEI we discussed a story together and he helped me to structure and to polish it.
For the case, he gave a super-detailed feedback for all case question as well as advices to improve. I applied all the tips during my interviews and received a wonderful feedback from my interviewers in both rounds.
Florian really knows what matters most and really helps you to understand how to stand out during interviews, so if you're preparing for an MBB (and especially for McKinsey), Florian is definitely a great help!

Florian did an amazing job of simulating the actual interview and providing actionable feedback.

His modules were super helpful and allowed me to refine the specific interview scenarios that I lacked in.

He transformed the way I thought about the case interview and gave me confidence of what to expect and how to succeed.

His years of tangible experience at the firm was important in my choosing of his services and he did not disappoint in the slightest.

I see Florian as a trusted advisor moving forward and I would 1,000,000% recommend investing in him as a coach.

As a result of his services (5 practice interviews + drills), I have received a full time offer as an Associate for McKinsey and Company.

Florian Christmas came early this year and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. I was anxious all weekend but go the call just now that I will start as an Analyst in February. I am so grateful for your help and for believing in me throughout the process.

I cannot thank you enough. Your coaching and homework drills really made the difference. Forever gratefull!!!

I will go to the office on Wednesday to sign the contract and wanted to ask if you are available for some questions I might have this week.

This review is very overdue but I wanted to be able to write it with the good news that I received an offer! Florian's coaching was diligent and his techniques really benefitted me. I found that his coaching was more appropriate for the kind of cases that McKinsey gave me during my interviews. I had no experience with cases and within 3-4 weeks Florian coached me to successfully pass my first round. I'm very excited to have passed my final round today!

Before choosing Florian as my coach, I have practiced more than 40 cases and knew what to expect during an interview and the important elements that my answer should contain. However, I was feeling that I was stuck on a specific level and was not sure how I could take a step further. During my two sessions with Florian, he has showed me how to avoid mistakes in a very detailed and easy-to-follow manner and most importantly he advised me on things that I did not even know I should do since they cannot be found in the casebooks. Florian takes his client's success personally by spending extra time in every session without asking for anything in return. He has also been very generous with the resources he shares. I would recommend him to both beginners and advanced profiles!

I did a PEI session with Florian and he pays great attention to your stories and guides you on how to best structure, communicate and prepare them for your interview. You get concrete and actionable advice and you will feel more confident in your stories after coaching with Florian.

Update: I got an offer! Florian's coaching definitely helped a lot during the whole process! You'll be better prepared and feel more secure in your interviews since you know exactly what is expected from you and have well prepared PEI stories. Can definitely recommend it to anyone with an upcoming interview!

Today was my first session with Florian and we did an extended case where all case components are covered. The session lasted about 80-90 minutes, making sure that I get adequate feedback on each component of the case. I didn't feel any time pressure at all going over the 1-hour limit. Florian's feedback is very detailed, tailored and insightful. In addition, you receive tips on each component that you can execute in each case, aiming for an overall improvement and distinguishing you from other candidates. These steps will help you get more comfortable as you approach new cases. You will also receive a written version of the feedback, along with prep material and a link to other coachees. Florian's in-depth knowledge with regards to case execution and McKinsey-specific requirements make him a great coach!

Offer is mine - and Florian's impact is huge! There is no better coach here and you need no more comparing coaches!
- Highly efficient and structured feedback to sanitize all the angles both for cases and fit. With Florian, you will get very practical answers to your strongs and weaknesses and advice on how to improve them.
- Availability and responsiveness. Florian was quickly and coherently answering all my questions after my first two rounds. But even then after a long and uncertain placement of mine he was always available for all sorts of issues.
- Deep expertise in consulting and McKinsey and high compliance and loyalty to McKinsey. It is not exaggerated that McKinsey is number 1 among equals. And Florian knows its culture and requirements, he literally is McKinseyan. Florian will fine tune, polish, steer right into the Firm. And once you're polished for McKinsey you are 100% fit for any MBB, Tier 2, etc.

This investment into coaching with Florian is my highest recommendation regarding your preparation for consulting.

I completed the McKinsey Rocket Offer with Florian and I can say without hesitation that Florian is well worth the money. After previously not receiving any interview invites with MBB and having a coach prior to Florian, I can confidently say Florian was instrumental in my success receiving an offer with McKinsey. Florian stands out in 3 main ways:

1) His professionalism. You will not find a coach who is as much of a consummate professional as Florian. He is extraordinarily responsive to your every need and responds to emails extremely quickly. Moreover, he is EXTREMELY detailed with his feedback on interviews and has it all compiled in a spreadsheet. You will be hard pressed to find coaches who provide such detailed and systematic feedback.

2) Unmatched materials. Florian's guides on the McKinsey Solve Game + the BCG Caseychatbot were very helpful in allowing me to pass both the aforementioned assessments.

3) The accuracy of his sessions. During my McKinsey interviews, they were almost exactly like Florian's practice sessions. I felt confident and great throughout the interviews. Even when my interviews threw trick questions with me, I simply followed the habits Florian ingrained in me to attack them.

While Florian's McKinsey Rocket Offer may appear to be more pricey than other offerings out there, I would still recommend purchasing it if you have the means to. I had to save up for a bit to afford it but I'm very pleased I did! In closing, I can't thank Florian enough for the help he gave me.

Florian was incredibly helpful in assessing my strengths and weaknesses and giving me meaningful, actionable feedback. I had two separate sessions (one prior to each interview round) and left each more confident and with a game plan that I could execute. His style is friendly, but he isn't afraid to give the feedback necessary for improvement. He has a significant depth of knowledge on this process beyond what can be learned alone on google (trust me, I've read everything:)). Highly, highly recommend, especially if you are in the situation of a tight timeline for preparation. I received an offer from McKinsey and credit much of my success to his guidance.

I started preparing for cases one month before my first (and final) interviews at McKinsey. Florian has been critical in my success for receiving a full time offer, mainly for 1) the invaluable tips to crack cases, 2) hearing what McKinsey is looking for in candidates, 3) the extensive feedback and resources he provided me with to accelerate my learning curve. I highly recommend working with Florian if your goal is to optimise your learning process and ultimately receive an offer to your dream firm!

I got an offer at McKinsey - and Florian's coaching was crucial for the receivement! I had three sessions with Florian, but already the first one was game changing. He gives feedback on small things you can directly change with a huge impact on your overall perfomance.
After each session you know exactly how to work on yourself and how to perform better in the interviews.
I can not only recommend him for the case interview, but also to talk through your PEI-stories for McKinsey preparation. You don't only feel more comfortable, but Florian is also giving you concrete advise and can tell you beforehand if the stories actually fit the dimensions.

So overall: the money is more than worth it and if you have an interview coming up (especially at McKinsey) you should book the coaching to be the best version of yourself in the interviews.

I started the preparation for my McKinsey interviews with a coaching session and found Florian to be the perfect coach on my way towards the offer. Mission completed :-)

The preparation with Florian was very valuable to me, especially due to three reasons:

1. Florian has very deep knowledge about the process, the interviews and the different types of case questions. After the coaching sessions, I had a clear picture of the upcoming interviews and felt myself very well prepared. I did not experience any surprise during the interview day and got my offer right after lunch without having further interviews in the afternoon.

2. Florian invested a lot of time, both during our sessions and also inbetween. He was always available for any kind of question during the process and always took the time to answer my questions in detail. This really helps, especially in times when you are struggling with self doubt.

3. Florian gives very detailled feedback together with recommendations for further preparation. His feedback was a perfect basis for focused work on my weaknesses and helped me to improve them dramatically.

Florian, many thanks for all your support, patience and the positive and productive atmosphere during our coaching sessions!

His coaching and structured approach have given me the tools I need to improve my case skills dramatically. I went from struggling to go through a case to passing the first round with "outstanding performance."

Given my past experience interviewing with McKinsey and discussions with people currently working at McKinsey, his approach is exactly what they're looking for. Follow what he says, put in the work and you're bound to land an offer.

The coaching sessions have been fantastic. Scheduling has been a breeze and Florian is always quick to respond to message. His feedback during the session is very actionable. He takes him time to ensure you understand concepts (including going over scheduled time if needed) and I never felt rushed during the session. After the coaching sessions he sends a spreadsheet with all his detailed feedback so you can review at your leisure and you don't have to waste time during the session to write what he says. Florian is absolutely amazing. One of the key issues that I had while finding a coach was to filter amongst a seemingly huge talent pool of coaches preplounge offers. However, based on my interaction with 3 different people, Florian stood out, and is completely true to his description. He is extremely knowledgeable about the entire McKinsey process and is a beast when it comes to fit and case preparation. I have improved tremendously under his supervision as he's always structured in his feedback and approach, and is more of a friend than a coach. I highly recommend him for candidates who are serious about outcomes and results. As with all coaches, YOU have to put in the ground work for him to assist you, and if you do it your bit well, Florian will take you the distance.

Update: I got the offer and can definitely attribute my success to Florian's coaching. All the below still stands true, and I would definitely recommend him to anyone looking to break into MBB.

I'm still going through the interview process so I can't speak to end results yet, but after having gone through the McKinsey Rocket program with Florian, I successfully passed my first round.

I can categorize Florian's coaching into 3 key areas:

1. Case Prep
Florian is really a natural teacher. I've heard from people in business school that they had to do 50+ cases to become comfortable before their case interviews. I did 4 sessions with Florian, having never done a case before, and came away probably 95% prepared. I learned the foundation, things to focus on, and a bunch of tricks to lookout for. Florian gives very robust cases that are also different so you can cover a lot in 4 cases. Getting 95% prepared from just 4 is incredible efficiency especially for those who don't have an entire school consulting club network to help prepare.

2. PEI Prep
In addition he helps prep for the PEI which is a commonly overlooked part of the interview process. He provides a lot of insight into it and what you need to do to be successful. This is super helpful as most people only focus on the casing and there are limited online resources for PEI prep.

3. Investment in each candidate
And lastly I could tell Florian treats his coaching not just as a business but as a true commitment to each candidate. He genuinely cares about his clients' success. He was constantly checking in to see how my prep was going and even offering his time to review questions or documents I had free of charge outside of sessions. He is very patient and doesn't hard cut sessions at an hour but rather when he feels that everything has been covered.

I can't recommend Florian enough and everyone who is preparing for McKinsey should definitely give him a shot. It's well worth it.

I've met with Florian twice, and I'll echo all of his numerous 5-star reviews. Florian is a professional and will aptly prepare you for McKinsey interviews. After each session with him, Florian provides actionable feedback and next steps in a documented format. He also does an excellent job walking candidates through what a good and a great response will be.

Florian coached me to prepare all the round-interviews at McKinsey for an analyst position. Thanks to Florian's help, I got the job offer!

Therefore, if you want to land a job offer, I would strongly recommend you take Florian as your coach for four main reasons:

First, Florian's coaching method is very well structured and organised. Hence, you will spare a lot of time in your preparation and directly target the important stuff.

Second, Florian will provide you with the best pre-selected content available out there. Therefore, with his content you will have the perfect material to study on your own time and make sure you are best prepared for the interview.

Third, Florian is very flexible, and his feedbacks during the learning sessions are cristal clear. In fact, he did not hesitate to spend more time with me than what I had scheduled if it was necessary. But most importantly after a session with Florian, based on his great feedback, you will directly know what to improve and what you should do during your real interview. This is extremely helpful, since a well organised and delivered feedback helps to remember it very easily. Moreover, he will notice some details on your case studies that you would not have thought of but that will ultimately bring a good-level interview to a perfect-level interview.

Fourth, Florian is really flexible, available, friendly, and funny. Therefore, he will give you confidence in what you are doing! This is the last point of my list, but certainly not the least. In fact, for stressful exercices and to feel prepared it is especially important to have a coach who methodologically helps you to build your own confidence.

Thank you Florian for your great help!

Hi Florian,

How are you? I just finished my interview process in McKinsey and I've been told that the outcome was positive, so I'm soon going to be contacted by the HR with the offer.
Thanks for your coaching that has been very useful!

I'd really appreciate if you could give me a couple of suggestion that could be useful for me before I receive the offer, based on your experience in McKinsey:

I'm very happy I did the sessions with Florian - I recently got an offer and I would recommend him to anyone preparing for McK because of three reasons:

1) Florian gives detailed feedback on everything you say, highlights the key areas for you to improve and makes a tailored prep plan
2) He clearly explains, teaches and shares a step-by-step structure how to tackle the different types of questions during an interview. If you follow it, it brings the interview to a pace you can handle and you come across structured and confident to the interviewer. Result: I always felt in control during my interviews. To me, this has been invaluable.
3) He helps to improve your PEI stories significantly so that they stands out

Good luck to you!

I found Florian's sessions to be extremely valuable. He provides prioritized, specific, and actionable feedback for improvement after each session with detailed written notes. I found each coaching session to be worth multiple hours of practicing with other newbie interviewees - definitely a worthwhile investment if you value your spare time.

Florian's coaching was instrumental to me getting my McKinsey offer. Great coaching style and feedback aside, he also helped me connect with several other strong candidates for case practice outside our coaching sessions. Two of my most reliable case partners were introduced to me by Florian - all three of us actually got an offer.

I received an offer from McKinsey as an EM! Florian did an amazing job providing me with strong coaching and helped accelerate my ability to learn how to present cases and PEI properly. Florian provides the full package to help you really understand what is it that interviewers really care about and doesn't use scare tactics like you may see on YouTube videos that any tiny mistake is a fail. Its really about presenting yourself as McKinsey would expect from a consultant with strong case and personal skills.

When I reached out to Florian, I haven't done cases in over 8 years and was very nervous since all the case books really don't feel like they helped much. Florian tells you what to really expect and if you follow what he says it'll drastically make your communication crisper and allow you to focus on what matters which is solving the case! In addition, Florian is extremely attentive and responds to any of your questions within a day even if it's a simple one! The best part is he helps to connect you with other high quality case partners and I don't think I would've been able to so quickly find someone who could help me grow as well on my own.

Overall, Florian will help you optimize your time and is well worth booking sessions with him. I am not sure I would've gotten the offer without his help and guidance.

Florian did a great job preparing me for my interviews!
I did not have any case experience prior to the coaching and Florian helped me a lot to improve very fast.
To keep it simple:
- he has a very structured approach to case interviews
- his feedback is crisp and to the point on what to improve
- he is not focused on the time, he takes as much time as needed to walk you through the cases and the feedback.

Through his structure and feedback I was able to make also the practice sessions with other applicants much more meaningful as I could focus on specific points to improve.
And the most important part: I got the offer :-)

I just received an offer from Mckinsey and I'm beyond grateful to Florian for the invaluable coaching he provided. Having been through consulting interviews in the past, I feel I was much more prepared, polished, and structured this time thanks to Florian's coaching. I can't recommend Florian enough and would highly recommend working with him to take your casing to the next level. Some of the factors that set his coaching apart are below:

1. Coaching on overall case flow: Florian's coaching is structured around the different case components and is focused on repeatedly reinforcing the best practices for each component as well as the transitions between components, until it feels very natural, and you can perform them under stress. He does this through detailed feedback and difficult cases that test you well.
2. Detailed feedback: Florian provides a detailed feedback sheet with best practices and areas for improvement on each component of the cases he gives you. I found this invaluable as I could focus on hearing the feedback from him during the post case review and then go back to the sheet for more detailed information after the session. These sheets became an important part of my preparation and were critical in guiding my practice.
3. Case difficulty: Florian's cases are generally harder than the cases you'll find in the interviews which is great because you'll have built strong case habits that'll make the interview process much easier
4. Case partners: Florian coaches several highly committed and competitive candidates at the same time and connects you with them so you have very strong case partners to practice with even outside of the sessions. This was hugely important in helping me build out the habits that Florian would coach me on
5. PEI: Florian's experience shines in helping with PEI as he was able to help me structure my stories in the right way as well as ensure that the core elements that McK is looking for are highlighted well. His feedback helped me structure even the stories that I did not speak with him about and my interviewers told me they were quite impressed with them.

Finally, Florian is an extremely supportive and flexible coach and I always felt he was invested in my success. He went out of his way to schedule calls at times convenient to me and took care to prepare for each session according to my areas of development we discussed. In addition, he was always ready to answer any question I had about any part of the process or about working with McKinsey in general and that went a long way in calming my nerves at each stage. Overall I'm very pleased I worked with him and cant recommend him highly enough.

I completed the McK Rocket package and I'd say that its totally worth it. While casebooks and resources are great way of getting started, the way the whole program is structured makes us go beyond just acing particular types of cases to honing the basic skills and abilities that firms like McK are looking for. Apart from the structure of program which ofcourse is great, I'm really grateful to Florian for being a great coach and mentor. The pointed and well documented feedbacks provided by him has not only prepared me for the interview process but I've felt my thought processes evolve as I went through the program.
The last session which comprised of PEI session was especially fruitful to me as it is often the most ignored piece of the puzzle and there aren't enough resources available to let you know what to do and what not to do.
Overall, nothing less than 5 stars!!

Florian was a complete game changer in my preparation for my McKinsey Interviews. In my sessions with him, we specifically focused on the PEI, and Florian provided not only a lot of validation on which stories were strong and which were week, but he provided an excel sheet after our session that helped me distill the critical elements that I needed to communicate. As a result of my 2 sessions with him, my PEI performance was superb and a large reason for why I got the offer! I would definitely recommend a session or two with him if you can afford it, and you need help understanding the ideal response.

Florian is a phenomenal coach for 3 reasons:
1. He knows exactly the criteria that is being assessed at McKinsey interviews, both for the case and the PEI.
2. He gives specific, actionable feedback to help you improve. No general statements like "you need to improve structuring", he actually tells you WHAT to do to improve.
3. He is extremely kind, encouraging, and is always reachable between sessions via email for any other questions you have.

All in all, I can definitely say that Florian is without a doubt the best money you can spend to help you get that offer.

1) We spaced the sessions based on when my interviews were and Florian was always very flexible if I needed to rearrange the session .
2) Florian takes time to answer your questions and tailors the session to your learning needs.
3) The coaching is structured, detailed and logical so you have something actionable to work on when prepping alone.
4) He is always available and responds promptly even outside of the sessions for any advice/ help you may need.
5) Overall, the coaching gave me the confidence I needed to ace the interview!

I got an offer from McKinsey and would undoubtedly recommend Florian as a coach!

My recommendation is underpinned by the following 3 reasons:
Each session is tailored to your competence and aims to help you improve as much as possible. One way of doing so is to provide you with super detailed feedback after each session in the form of a Google Sheet
Florian seems truly committed to your success by spending extra time when it is suitable for both, and always patiently explaining any concerns you may have. He has also been very accessible via email between sessions.
Florian's focus on building and internalizing the right habits helped me come across as more natural when discussing the case. I think this ability can be a differentiator in the actual interviews. For me, being able to build on these habits helped me go into my interviews with a more confident mindset.

Overall, these sessions exceeded my expectations and I am so grateful for the skills Florian has taught me.

Got an offer! Florian's coaching is instrumental in my success. His sessions have helped me develop a well-structured approach and much-needed confidence to tackle R1 and R2 McKinsey interviews.

Why the sessions with Florian are great:
1. The cases used are way more realistic and the exhibits can sometimes come in unexpected forms.
2. He always provides detailed written feedback with clear advice on where and how to improve.
3. He is very encouraging throughout the sessions and answers all questions with patience.

I've learnt so much from my sessions with Florian and the package is simply one of the best investments I've ever made. Highly recommend him to anyone who is preparing for case interviews!

Außerdem finde ich die Cases, die er in den Meetings stellt sehr nahe an den McKinsey Cases. Es lohnt sich definitiv bei ihm ein Coaching zu machen. Ich habe ihm zwei mal ein Coaching gemacht und würde es auch wieder so machen! Ich hatte ein Coaching am Anfang meiner Vorbereitungszeit, so konnte ich auch die kommende Zeit zur Vorbereitung effektiver nutzen und gezielter die Dineg üben, die Florian mir weitergegeben hat. I am writing this review just after successfully passing my first round at McKinsey.

I highly recommend Florian to anyone preparing for McKinsey. The increase in your chance of success is certainly worth the investment. Within three sessions, he equipped me with insights and techniques for PEI, case interview, and Imbellus that I wouldn't have acquired by just reading and preparing with other candidates.

Top three things I liked about Florian's coaching:
1. He gives very detailed feedback, mainly focusing on establishing a process and habits to solve any case/ answer any PEI question
2. His sessions typically take much longer than an hour because he takes time to discuss until everything is clear (he is also available via email for any questions on the interview process)
3. He is all about your success and satisfaction and is not just after your money: When he realized I was well prepared by the third session, he recommended me to cancel the fourth session because it was not needed

Thanks, Florian!

I recently had sessions with Florian on a few cases, and I found them very helpful for the following 3 reasons:
1. The cases are very indicative of what you'd face in the real-interview, which gives very good practice for the actual interview. Secondly, you'd not face a lot of surprises or shocks in the interview, because you can expect what you will have in the real interview

2. He has a very structured process of answering each of the questions, and it's easy to follow and inculcate in your daily routine. I really appreciate that he gives you places where you can showcase X-factor in yourself, while always sticking to what's looked for in a candidate

3. He gives tailored feedback on each question, and on each aspect of the structure you follow during the case. Additionally, he takes time to go through where you did well and where you could have been better. Finally, he answers all your questions with patience, and makes sure that it is a very friendly and amicable discussion throughout the time you spend with him in the session

EDIT: I worked with Florian on PEI, I found that his PEI session was very useful for 2 main reasons:

1. He focuses on the most important aspects of the story and ensures that it is structured in the best possible way

2. He lets you know exactly what to emphasize in the story and also asks you probing questions which will prepare you for what to expect in the actual interview

Florian will ensure that you feel comfortable about your capabilities; he will ask you what you should continue doing, and also let you know what are the things you need to change in your approach. He gives very specific points on PEI which give perfect structure and flow to your stories and experiences.

Thanks to these tailored sessions, I received an offer and would be joining the firm soon as an Associate.

I was recently extended an offer at McKinsey. My preparation included two sessions with Florian which significantly enhanced my performance. We ran two mock interviews (PEI plus case) which provided a very realistic training for the actual interviews. I do strongly recommend anyone in preparation for interviews with McKinsey to consider coaching sessions with Florian - it does make a difference!

Some key points that made my coaching with Florian so valuable:

1. Both his PEI criteria and evaluations were very close to the real setting. This allowed me to work on my PEI performance very efficiently.
2. Florian's cases were very similar in style to the real interview cases, including some 'twists' and extra bits to consider upon solving. Really helpful for my case preparation!
3. His feedback on all parts of the mock interview was very insightful: very structured and identifying executable steps to take – working on these clearly elevated my performance.
4. Florian is an extremely helpful and warm person and made me feel comfortable throughout the entire process of working on my performance. It was a great experience altogether. Many thanks, Florian!

Florian was FANTASTIC and I believe one of the main reasons I was able to pass my R1 McKinsey interview (R2 is coming up soon!). What was great about Florian was that he really gives you a playbook on what to do, say and think throughout the case and provides hyper-tactical and implementable advice. I've decided to book 3 more sessions with Florian, 5 days before my final round interviews. These were critical to the final stage of my preparation and were structured like this:

1) Initially, we did a 2-hour sessions focused on PEI, where we went through all of my stories. I have worked a lot on my stories before, but with Florian's mentoring I was able to polish them and take them to another level. After the session, I've incorporated the feedback and sent them to him. Florian added specific and detailed comments.

2) We also went through a case interview, a very interesting one where I fine-tuned my performance and got confidence ahead of the last round. The feedback that Florian provides is very exhaustive and detailed, followed up with a written form.

All in all, I went on my interviews feeling very sure and confident about myself. I believe that this came from what Florian says: "Once you have your PEI stories ready, you have nothing to fear". The Personal Experience Part is very important during final round interviews, as not only it is assessed a lot but also it sets up the initial impression and creates rapport with the interviewer. I would not be able to reach this level of confidence without Florian's guidance and mentorship. Adding to that the case interview session we had, the mini "Ready for McKinsey" programme we had together, was vital for the success!

Thank you very much Florian!

Florian is a highly competent coach. He gives great guidance in terms of case approach and structuring. His insights on the PEI are also very helpful since he takes time to listen to your stories and then gives clear recommendations. In the end I received the offer I aimed for. The interviews were exactly like the coachings with Florian. I am very satisfied with the coaching sessions and can clearly recommend Florian as a coach!

It was wonderful getting coached by Florian! He gave me clear feedback on my casing method and spent quite a bit of time advising me on how I can improve while simultaneously building on my strengths. He also gave me more case examples I can look at and some homework. I was much more confident as I approach my Mckinsey 1st Round interviews thanks to him. I then not only progressed to the 2nd Round, but also got an offer from Mckinsey! Highly recommend!!

I just received a verbal offer from McKinsey today.

I had 5 coaching sessions with Florian. Each of these sessions was the single best thing I have done to improve my chances of getting an offer from McKinsey. Thank you Florian! My performance in both PEI and case have improved dramatically with your help.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED. Florian is an excellent coach and helped me to succeed in my interviews.
- Knows MBB interview process extremely well
- Takes time during coaches and does not rush through
- Listens carefully and understands personal development needs / areas of improvement
- Uses relevant cases for McKinsey interview
- Provides excellent, actionable feedback

- Florian is one of the most genuine supporters; he takes the time to really understand you.

- He has a unique ability to listen with interest and curiosity and yet respond with intensity and calmness.

- Years of McKinsey experience - even in hiring - help him to get you better in every stage of the interview.

- He has a passion for helping others to gain clarity in addressing core issues and saves you by that a lot of time.

- He offers also perfect material to prepare, in my case he improved my math skills an outstanding way

- But most of all Florian has a 100%-quota to get people into McKinsey;

Over the past 2 months, I have cased with several people (who were collectively coached by 7 other coaches on this platform), and from my experience (both direct and indirect), I can say that Florian beats out most of the other coaches by a large margin.

His feedback is detailed, he is extremely warm/friendly, and his methodology makes it extremely easy to progress through cases.

If you want to succeed at MBB interviews, be sure to book sessions with Florian!

I booked Florian for help on crafting my PEI. He was an absolutely excellent coach providing a thorough and structured approach on how to best craft your stories. I followed Florian's approach, utilized his insights and felt very comfortable with the PEI after our session.

After walking through my stories, he provided me with overall feedback on the strength of each story that I had prepared for each of McKinsey's values. He gave me critical insight based on the key points that interviewers will look for. He then provided me with a structure/approach (and shared this sheet with me) on how to concisely and effectively communicate my stories. I have had my PEI's in my first round interview and received great feedback, was essentially told there were little to no area's to improve thanks to Florian's coaching.

I worked with Florian several times leading up to my interviews and would HIGHLY recommend working with him and his approach if you're serious about pursuing McKinsey.

With his help I recently received an offer! There's a lot of information out there that can confuse but Florian's approach is very easy to understand and his feedback is super helpful and very actionable. A few sessions with Florian and you will be feeling a whole lot more comfortable with where you stand.

Again, I would highly recommend Florian!

Florian is an excellent interview coach. I did a mock-interview with him on the day before my McK first round interview, which I passed successfully.

Florian gave me very detailed & helpful feedback on both PEI and case interview. He took time to answer all my questions diligently and I could really tell his wealth of experience in every bit of advice he gave me.

As a consequence of my coaching with Florian, I felt extremely well-prepared for my interview and knew exactly what to expect from it. I would therefore highly recommend him to anyone preparing for an interview with an MBB firm.

yes, congrats

now accept it :D

McKinsey

Hey Florian,

Apologies I didn't get back to you. I was spending a lot of time practicing my PEIs so I didnt do much casing leading up to the final interviews.

But good news, after the interviews Friday one of the partners called and extended an offer. I couldn't be more excited! Thanks again for all your help, it went a long way to say the least.

McKinsey

Hi Florian,

I hope this finds you well. I am writing to let you know I ended up receiving the offer from McKinsey 😊 Thank you again for the good mock interview session and for the useful feedback!

Best,

McKinsey

As the first one in my family who did his a-levels, from a non-target-school and as an exoticism's (non-economic)-Backround, I had all the disadvantages to land an offer from McK.

But Florian helped me to translate my skills into an offer.

1) he coached me for two cases to learn the method,
2) He did a math drill,
3) He did several PEI sessions with me and corrected my final version,
4) I got the offer !

McKinsey Bain

After having gone through the interviews with all major firms I can say now that this was definitely the most thorough and instructive case prep I had. I helped me tremendously to identify my issues and improve. I am convinced that it scored me 2 out of 3 MBB and several other offers. Thank you!!!

McKinsey

Florian is definitely the BEST out there.

1. I reached Florian through the super quality content StrategyCase.com has to offer.
2. After that, I purchased the product designed to help with McKinsey Problem Solving Game that was made by Florian and proved itself as outstanding and practically made me a master of the real game when I faced it in real time 🙂
3. I already knew Florian is an exceptional professional and a very kind and thoughtful person as I asked for his advice a few times, but only when we started our coaching sessions I realized to what extent.
Beyond the fact that Florian is extremely experienced, knowledgeable, and caring which makes him the best coach you could ask for professionally, he also has a great character – his patience, responsiveness, and kindness all make the sessions and overall communication not just super helpful but enjoyable as well.

If you really want to get an offer from top consulting firms, using Florian's materials and especially the coaching sessions will definitely pay off!

Good luck to everyone 🙂

McKinsey

I would absolutely recommend the experience. The whole process was flawless and I ended up doing 5 interviews. The feedback is very detailed and extensive and I have learned a completely new way of attacking cases. The coaching extends outside of the practice calls and the team was very responsive to my email questions. I landed 2 out of 3 mbb offers and accepted the one I was striving for.

McKinsey

Having worked with Florian, I can highly recommend him for 3 reasons:

1) He tailored the session specifically to what I had asked before and we went through a very broad and exhaustive in every area case. This is very important as this is the only way to find pain points in a candidate's performance.

2) His feedback is very structured, exhaustive and personalised. He recommends specific action plans on how to improve on each category and runs examples to make them more clear. After the sessions, he goes the extra step and provides a short report with his feedback, which is very helpful indeed.

3) Most importantly, he is very sincere and straightforward and you can be sure that when he is suggests a plan with next sessions, he does it because he believes that the candidate needs them and not just to sell more sessions. This is very important because other coaches show you from the initial information call that what they prioritize from you is to book as many sessions with them as possible, no matter what. Personally, I want to work with people that are trustworthy and show genuine interest and Florian surely is one of them. He also keeps in touch politely with the candidates and offers help.

All in all, I definitely recommend him to anyone who wants to get into MBB or other consulting companies.

McKinsey

The interviews were amazingly on-point and really reflected what I went through a week later with McKinsey. I have booked the package and the feedback I got and tricks I learned were golden. I am confident that this made the difference for me to receive my offer.

BCG

Bain

I booked 4 sessions after I used the application templates to apply to prepare for Bain, BCG and strategy&. It helped my preparation a lot – in the end I got 3 offers and what I learned through the cases here was definitely contributing a lot to my performance 🙂
